

Video Remote Interpreting Service. This service is an alternative for an onsite certified or qualified interpreter. The certified or qualified interpreter is televised on a television via a videophone to the presenter and the person who is deaf or hard of hearing who are both in the same room. This service is available from the Communication Access Center for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing in Flint. They may be contacted at info@cacdhh.org.